
A MILLENNIUM EVENING
"ALABAMA - LOOKING AT THE 21ST CENTURY"

SHELTON STATE
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

12 MONTHS TO MIDNIGHT- A COUNTDOWN TO THE MILLENNIUM

If history is any indicator, events leading up to the new Millennium will be used as benchmarks of our culture for life in the twenty-first century.

Recognizing this fact, Shelton State Community College is embarking on a celebration for 1999 entitled:

12 MONTHS TO MIDNIGHT - A COUNTDOWN TO THE MILLENNIUM.

Shelton State hopes you will join us in this year-long celebration. During this time, Shelton will host events that can improve your physical being, stimulate your soul, and increase your intellectual capacity. There will be special celebrations involving our faculty, staff, and students, both current and former, as well as our many friends from the community.

As we approach this milestone in human history, we must learn to think in new and different ways, to look at the world through a global perspective, and to work together toward unity for all people.

Shelton recognizes that it's important to retain the college's human touch, the individual caring and concern that has made Shelton unique in the past. These same qualities will guide the college as it moves in new and different directions in the future.

Join us over these next months as we celebrate not only our past but our future opportunities as well.

HISTORY OF SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

In 1953 the college first opened its doors as the J.P. Shelton Trade School with a total of 300 students and 16 faculty members. This original campus of the college eventually became Shelton State Technical College.

In 1979 a resolution by the Alabama State Board of Education combined Shelton State Technical College and the Tuscaloosa branch campus of Brewer State junior college which had been in operation since 1972. In 1980 the Alabama State Fire College was made a unit of Shelton State, and in 1988, the state legislature combined the operation of the Fire College with the Firefighters' Personnel Standards and Education Commission.

The consolidation of Shelton State Community College with C.A. Fredd State Technical College occurred in 1994. The new institution created by the consolidation retained the name of Shelton State Community College, and the president of Shelton State was named president of the consolidated institution.

In 1990 Shelton purchased 170 acres for a new campus site, and in October 1994, ground was broken on Shelton State's new $47 million campus located in south Tuscaloosa County. Phase I of the construction project was completed in June 1996. The remainder of the campus was finished in the fall of 1997 and the official dedication was held in October of that year. Shelton's new theatre complex was completed and dedicated in the fall of 1998.
